

Irene Tison

I was born in the Low Country of South Carolina to a family of thirteen children. Art became my calling at the age of six as I sat at my Mother's feet and watch her sketch the world around her. I never stop drawing and painting since then. I have exhibited art across the Low Country and in North Carolina. My art was a part of the props in the movie by Warner Brothers "NIGHTS IN RODANTHE". I have been a professional artist for over forty years. My love for art has taught me patience and persistence.
